Audio Comic Books

What is an Audio Comic Book?

For the last five years VirtuallyAudio has been moving towards a fusion of graphic novels and radio theatre, to produce a dynamic new hybrid.

Using the genres of popular pulp fiction such as science fiction, horror, crime noir, and westerns, VirtuallyAudio has brought a new kind of excitement to the audio theatre realm. Through the implementation of captivating new programs like the sci-fi/fantasy series SECTARIAN WAVE, and the soon-to-be-released DARWIN'S LAW (an X-Files styled western), VirtuallyAudio has set out to create the kind of shows we hope will become fan favourites as much as Frank Miller's "Sin City" and Alan Moore's "From Hell" and "Watchmen."

Working with a talented and diverse ensemble of multi-voiced actors, and pushing the boundaries of sound effects and music design, the VirtuallyAudio.com Audio Comic Book Series breaks new ground in the medium of audio entertainment. Every cough, explosive shudder and shocking musical chord promises to transport the listener to places and worlds that they have only dreamed of and, in some cases, only had nightmares about.

Audio Comic Books, a new twist on an old idea. VirtuallyAudio — what have you been listening to . . . lately?
